

Eugene Winter Dance Event

The Eugene Country Dancers, a branch of The Heather and the Rose Country Dancers (H&R), is delighted to hold our first Eugene Winter Dance Event. As a treat, we'll offer a few Scottish party dances mixed with the English country dances on Friday night. We have used global/positional terminology throughout our 45 year history.

February 14, 2025

Santa Clara Grange, 295 Azalea Dr., Eugene

Limited parking in front or plenty through the gate at the side of the building

Evening Dance Party: 7PM - 10PM

Introductory Lesson for Newcomers:

6:30PM - 6:55PM upon request

Dance Leaders: David Macemon (Portland) Kalindi Devi-Dasi (Eugene)

Musicians (Seattle): Anita Anderson (piano), Ryan McKasson (fiddle), Hayden Stern (fiddle, mandolin)

February 15, 2025

Eugene Garden Club, 1645 High St., Eugene

Parking at Jennings Group, 1670 High Street, across the street

Workshops with Orly:

10AM - 12PM "Going for Gold"

Designed for experienced dancers with a good grasp of basic figures. We'll work on challenging repertoire with an eye toward dancing beautifully.

1:30PM - 3:30PM "Love Thy Neighbor"

This workshop will look at dances that feature significant neighbor interactions and will look at the ways in which increased awareness of neighbors can lead to a more joyful dancing experience.

Evening Dance Party:

7PM - 10PM "Dances We Love"

No practice needed.

Dance Leader: Orly Krasner (New York)

Musicians (Seattle): Anita Anderson (piano), Ryan McKasson (fiddle), Hayden Stern (fiddle, mandolin)

Sound Enhancement: Bob Fraley

Attire is comfortable clothes, fancy Saturday night if you wish, with non-marking, soft-soled shoes.

As Winter is our theme, a winter scarf or hat to start out the Saturday evening dance will add to the fun and festive atmosphere.
